ADMINISTRATIVE CONSENT ORDER

ORDER NO. SB-09-02

WHEREAS, Wachovia Securities, LLC¹ (“Wachovia Securities”), is a broker-dealer registered in the District of Columbia with its home office at One North Jefferson Avenue, St. Louis, Missouri 63103; and Wachovia Capital Markets, LLC (“Wachovia Capital Markets”, collectively with Wachovia Securities, "Wachovia"²), is a broker-dealer with its home office at 301 South College Street, Charlotte, North Carolina 28288-0601; and

WHEREAS, a multi-state task force, comprised of state regulators, including the District of Columbia, conducted and coordinated investigations into Wachovia's marketing and sale of auction rate securities to investors during the period of January 1, 2006, through February 14,

¹ In October 2007, Wachovia Corporation acquired the Missouri-based broker dealer A. G. Edwards & Sons, Inc. (“AG Edwards”) which was subsequently combined with Wachovia Securities, LLC.

² Factual allegations in this Order may apply to Wachovia Securities and/or Wachovia Capital Markets, but do not necessarily refer to both entities.

1 2008; and

2 WHEREAS, after a books and records inspection by a multi-state task force on July 17,
3 2008, Wachovia Securities has cooperated fully with regulators conducting the investigations by 4 responding to inquiries, providing documentary evidence and other materials, and providing 5 regulators with access to information relating to the investigations; and

6 WHEREAS, Wachovia has advised regulators of its agreement to resolve the 7 investigations relating to its marketing and sale of auction rate securities to investors; and

8 WHEREAS, Wachovia agrees to, among other things, reimburse certain purchasers of 9 auction rate securities, and to make certain payments to the Department of Insurance, Securities
10 and Banking ("Department"); and

11 WHEREAS, Wachovia elects to permanently waive any right to a hearing and appeal
12 under the Rules of Practice and Procedures for Hearing in the District of Columbia § 17 DCMR
13 8100 et seq. (2002) with respect to this Consent Order (the "Order");

14 NOW, THEREFORE, Commissioner of the Department (hereinafter "Commissioner"),
15 as administrator of the Securities Act of 2000, effective September 29, 2000 (D.C. Law 13-203, 16 47 DCR 7837, D.C. Official Code § 31-5601.01 et seq. (2001 Ed.)) (the "Act") hereby enters this 17 Order.
18

19 I.

20 FINDINGS OF FACT

21 1. Wachovia Securities admits the jurisdiction of the Department and Wachovia Capital
22 Markets consents to the jurisdiction of the Department for purposes of this Order. Neither
23 admits nor denies the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law contained in this Order, and each
24 consents to the entry of this Order by the Department.

2. Auction rate securities are long-term debt or equity instruments that include auction preferred shares of closed-end funds, municipal auction rate bonds, and various asset-backed auction rate bonds (collectively referred to herein as "ARS"). While ARS are all long-term instruments, one significant feature of ARS (which historically provided the potential for short-term liquidity) is the interest/dividend reset through auctions that occur in varying increments of between 7 and 42 days. If an auction is successful, investors are able to exit the ARS market on a short-term basis. If, however, an auction "fails," investors are required to hold all or some of their ARS until the next successful auction in order to liquidate their funds. Beginning in February 2008, the ARS market experienced widespread failed auctions.

Marketing and Sales of ARS to Investors

3. In connection with the sale of ARS, some investors state variously that they were told by Wachovia Securities and its registered agents that ARS were:

- a. just like cash;
- b. same as cash;
- c. safe as cash;
- d. same as money markets;
- e. safe as money markets;
- f. cash equivalents;
- g. short-term adjustable rate securities;
- h. cash alternatives;
- i. completely safe;
- j. liquid at any time; and/or
- k. always liquid at an auction.

4. Although marketed and sold to investors as safe, liquid, cash-like investments, and although the ARS market had, in fact, functioned for more than twenty years with virtually no auction failures, ARS are actually long-term instruments subject to a complex auction process that, upon failure, can lead to illiquidity and lower interest rates.

5. Wachovia Securities further fostered the misconception that ARS were cash-like instruments by providing account portfolio summaries to certain of its customers that listed ARS as “cash equivalents.” In fact, ARS were not “cash equivalents” and full liquidity was only available at an auction if the auction was successful.

6. Although Wachovia Securities sold ARS as conservative, safe, and liquid investments to its investors until February 2008, Wachovia had information that several auctions had failed in August 2007 and early 2008, before the mass failures in February 2008. During this same period of time, Wachovia failed to inform its customers purchasing ARS after such auctions began to fail that certain auctions would have failed had Wachovia or another broker-dealer not entered support bids in those auctions.

7. Although Wachovia knew, or should have known, of the inherent risks and the recent volatility of the ARS market, only minimal information regarding the ARS market was provided to Wachovia Securities' retail ARS customers.

8. Wachovia and its registered securities agents were, or should have been, aware that the ARS market was suffering from increasing failures and liquidity issues, and they should have disclosed those facts to investors who were purchasing auction rates after such issues arose. Based on these facts, Wachovia engaged in dishonest and unethical practices in the marketing and sale of ARS. Pursuant to D.C. Official Code §§ 31-5602.07(a)(9), these practices constitute grounds to revoke Wachovia's registration. These practices included, among other things, the

1 following:

2 a. Wachovia told some ARS investors purchasing ARS after the market disruptions
3 began to occur that:

4 i. ARS were cash equivalents;

5 ii. ARS were completely safe; and/or

6 iii. ARS were liquid at any time.

7 b. Wachovia was or should have been aware that the market for ARS was becoming 8 illiquid, yet Wachovia Securities continued to market and sell ARS to investors.

9 Temporary Maximum Rate Waiver on Certain ARS

10 9. The interest rates on ARS are reset periodically through the auction process. In the 11 event that there is insufficient demand for a particular issue and an auction fails, the interest rate
12 resets to a "maximum rate" or "failure rate" as defined in the offering documents for that 13 particular issue. Typically, this maximum rate would be higher than prevailing market rates in 14 order to compensate ARS holders who are unable to sell their positions and offer an "incentive"
15 to induce buyers to return to the market although in some cases, particularly for student loan
16 auction rates, the maximum rate might be lower than the prevailing rate.

17 10. In December 2007, with the encouragement of its underwriters, the Missouri Higher
18 Education Loan Authority ("MOHELA") sought and secured approval to waive its maximum
19 rate for certain issues of ARS. Absent such waivers, the ARS issued by MOHELA would not 20 have been allowed to reset at interest rates high enough to clear auctions.

21 11. As a result of the maximum rate waivers, certain MOHELA ARS issues reset to a
22 higher rate for a brief period after the waiver was implemented. However, due to a feature of 23 those issues that caps the average interest rate over any given one-year period, the interest rates
25
26

1 reset to 0% after the expiration of the waiver period. The ramifications of this maximum rate
2 waiver were not explained to Wachovia Securities' customers who subsequently purchased
3 MOHELA ARS.

4 12. Wachovia Securities engaged in dishonest and unethical practices by not adequately
5 explaining to individual investors who purchased ARS with maximum rate waivers, among other
6 things, the following:

- 7 a. that the ARS interest rates could not be reset at a level that would prevent a failed
8 auction absent the maximum rate waiver; and
9 b. that the high interest rate allowed by the waiver would expire at the end of the 10 waiver period unless extended by the issuer.
11

12 13. Pursuant to D.C. Official Code § 31-5602.07(a)(9), these practices constitute grounds
13 to revoke Wachovia Securities' registration.

14 Failure To Supervise Agents Who Sold ARS

15 14. Although ARS are complicated and complex products, Wachovia Securities did not 16 provide its sales or marketing staff with the training and information necessary to adequately
17 explain these products or the mechanics of the auction process to their customers. During the 18 course of investigations, on-the-record statements taken from Wachovia Securities' registered 19 agents demonstrated that these agents lacked a basic understanding of the functionality of the 20 ARS products and the auction rate market.

22 15. Many of Wachovia Securities' registered agents were not adequately educated in the 23 ARS products they were selling and did not know where to look for information to bolster that 24 knowledge. Wachovia Securities failed to provide timely and comprehensive sales and 25 marketing literature regarding ARS and the mechanics of the auction process. In addition,
26

1 Wachovia Securities failed to review account portfolio statements sent to its customers to ensure
2 that they reflected accurate information regarding ARS.

3 16. Wachovia Securities' failure to provide sufficient training and information
4 concerning ARS and the market environment in which they were sold was not limited to one or
5 two agents, and is therefore indicative of Wachovia Securities' failure to ensure that its
6 registered personnel provided adequate information regarding ARS to its customers.

7 17. Wachovia Securities failed to reasonably supervise its employees, which is grounds
8 for revocation of its registration under D.C. Official § 31-5602.07 (a)(12), by engaging in the 9 following activities:

10 a. failing to provide adequate training to its registered agents regarding
11 ARS by, among other things:

12 i. failing to provide timely and comprehensive sales and 13 marketing literature regarding ARS and the mechanics of the 14 auction process;

15 ii. failing to provide pertinent information concerning the 16 complexity of the ARS product; and

17 iii. failing to ensure that its agents were selling ARS to individual 18 investors for whom they were suitable; and

19 b. failing to review account portfolio statements sent to its customers
20 to ensure that they reflected accurate information regarding ARS;

21 c. failing to review ARS transactions in accounts of customers who 22 needed liquidity;

23 d. and failing to ensure that its registered personnel were providing 24

adequate information regarding ARS to its customers.

II.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

18. The District of Columbia Department of Insurance, Securities and Banking has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to D.C. Official Code § 31-5606.01 (a)(1).

19. The Commissioner of the Department of Insurance, Securities and Banking finds Wachovia Securities failed to supervise its employees and engaged in dishonest or unethical practices in the securities business, and that this conduct constitutes grounds to revoke Wachovia Securities' registration under D.C. Official Code §§ 31-5602.07(a)(9) and 31-5602.07(a)(12).

20. The Department finds this order and the following relief appropriate, in the public interest, and consistent with the purposes intended by the Act.

2 provided further that Wachovia shall not be able to use as part of its defense an investor's
